

I strongly urge you to reject petition 04-160. I believe this is an attempt to prevent competition. My satellite radio provides me a service not available anywhere else and I look forward to continued improvement in providing local information on traffic and weather.